COVID-19 CHW Emergency Response Discretionary Funds Application Status Key

Received – The application has been successfully submitted and will be assigned to an AUCH case manager.

In Review – The application has been assigned to an AUCH case manager and is currently being reviewed.

In Remediation – The application is missing information and/or documentation needed for AUCH to process payment. Please check your application e-mail for instructions from your case manager on what is missing and when it is due.

Processing – The application has been entered into AUCH's accounting system and will be paid soon.

Paid – The application has been paid, i.e., the check has been mailed to the payee.

Withdrawn – The application has been removed from consideration. AUCH will withdraw applications if information or documentation needed to process payment are not submitted within 10 days of AUCH's notification. A CHW may also choose to withdraw an application, i.e., the client no longer requires assistance at that time. The application may be resubmitted for consideration if needed.

Declined – Your application has been removed from consideration due to ineligibility. The application may not be resubmitted for consideration.
